“ Agnes donated hundreds of hours of her time over the years to St. Anthony Hospital working in the coffee shop, crocheting baby blankets, hats, and prayer shawls, and greeting visitors at the Atrium entrance. Her service and her smile will be missed. No doubt she will be at the front gate of heaven, crochet needle in hand, welcoming new arrivals and helping them find their way.

To all of Aunt Agnes's children and your families, I am very sorry for your loss. I have special memories of our childhood together and have enjoyed hearing about all of her giving to others she has done through her talents and volunteering. We were blessed to have such strong Halbur Mothers. Sending my love and prayers to you.
