Born on July 12, 1925, in Arcadia, Alice Mary was the daughter of John and Leona (Otto) Vonnahme. She grew up in the Arcadia community, where she attended St. John's School in Arcadia, and later St. Angela's Academy in Carroll. On July 26, 1944, she was united in marriage to Leo J. Schmitz at St. John Catholic Church in Arcadia, with Fr. Stork Officiating. The couple made their home in Arcadia where Alice was a devoted homemaker, and mother. Alice enjoyed baking, volunteering, playing cards, and gardening. She will be remembered as a loving mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Alice was a member of Arcadia American Legion Auxiliary, St. John's Christian Mothers, St. Anthony Hospital Auxiliary, 50 year Woodman of the World Member, and lifelong member of St. John Parish.

Left to celebrate Alice's life are her daughters: Donna Rae Lenz of Carroll, and Beth Ann Grace, and her husband Jim of Omaha, NE.; her daughter-in-law, Pam Schmitz of Omaha, NE; 14 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren; her siblings: Gladys Steinkamp of Arcadia, Vera Booth of Des Moines, and Lyle (Lorraine) Vonnahme of Carroll; her sister-in-laws: Norma Vonnahme of Arcadia, Norma Berger of Carroll, and Florence Schmitz of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Alice was preceded in death by her parents, husband Leo J. Schmitz, two sons: Daniel Schmitz and David Schmitz, a son-in-law Larry Lenz, and her brothers: Leon, Duane, and Leroy Vonnahme.

“ Alice was a delightful lady that volunteered faithfully at the Atrium Desk at St Anthony Regional Hospital. I have missed your smiling face over the last few weeks and now God gets the pleasure of your company! If you are sitting at the front gate with St. Peter, just smile, Alice, and folks will know they are home. Kas Clausen
