Born on March 9, 1930 at Coon Rapids, Iowa, Annabelle was the daughter of Edward and Elsie (Wallis) Patrick. Annabelle received her education in the Coon Rapids Community School, graduating in 1947. She attended Iowa State Teacher's College, now the University of Northern Iowa in Cedar Falls, Iowa where she graduated with her teaching certificate. She began her teaching career in the Dedham Independent School.

On June 5, 1950 Annabelle was united in marriage to Delbert Von Bon at the St. Joseph's Rectory in Dedham. The Von Bon's lived in Dedham, Carroll, and Maple River before returning to Dedham in 1955. Over the years Annabelle taught school at Dedham Independent Schools, Gray Consolidated School, Ewoldt #6 School, Washington #4 School, St. Joseph's School in Dedham, and St. Mary's School in Willey. In 1970 she began teaching in the Carroll Community School District as a Title I reading teacher. In 1985, at the age of 55 Annabelle completed her Bachelor's Degree. After teaching for thirty-eight years, Annabelle retired in 1992.

Annabelle enjoyed her winters camping in Texas, her Nickelodeon Card Club, and watching college basketball. She was known for her homemade bread, rolls, and buns. Most of all she enjoyed her family and the young families in Dedham. When she was on her porch swing, she always appreciated the people stopping by on their walks so she could talk with them and to see their kids in the strollers. Seeing her former students was always special to her.

She was a member of St. Joseph's Ladies Guild, and St. Joseph's Parish.

Annabelle was preceded in death by her parents; husband Delbert in 2007; her sister: Bernice (Merle) Pomeroy; her brothers: Howard (Betty) Patrick, Ralph Patrick, Paul (Betty) Patrick, Delbert Patrick, Jon Patrick, and Roy Patrick; her brothers-in-law: Darrell Smith, and Jack (Doris) Von Bon.

“ My deepest sympathy to Annabelle's family. I have fond memories when we were little of the VonBon family. I'm sure Mom (Freda Tigges) was ready to play cards again when Annabelle arrived in heaven! Mom always loved going to see Annabelle and the ladies on "cards day". Prayers to you all!

“ There are so MANY things I loved about Auntibelle and so many things I will miss. Any chance we got to be with her and Uncle Del, was a fun time. I remember the little things about her, like as a child how much I liked the smell of coffee on her breath as she leaned over me to help me read. I loved how silly she would get with my kids, and I loved how encouraging she was to me when I first became a mother. Her and Uncle Del had stopped by Kansas on their way to vacation, to see us after our daughter was born. Our daughter that holds the middle name of DeAnn (Delbert and Annabelle's name together) I remember sitting in my rocking chair and as I held my daughter , she knelt beside my chair and smiled. Auntibelle grabbed her little feet and told me it was good that I kept warm socks on her. Then she put her hand on my leg and with a confident smile, told me I was going to be a great mother. That one little comment of encouragement from her made me more determined than ever to make her proud. That was one of the special memories that stick out for me, but as we all know.....her cookies, and cinnamon rolls are on high up on that list of specialties too. She could master the baking for sure. Prayers and hugs to all of her family. Love Janet Blanc (niece)

“ Annabelle was such a wonderful person. She scared me the pants off of me when I first started teaching in Willey, but as I got to know her and teach with her, she became a mentor to me, and I grew to love her dearly. She will be missed by everyone she knew. Much sympathy to your family. Mary Ann Brincks

Growing up in Dedham, we were all friends with Delbert & Annabelle. Always kind; always curious how we were, what we were up to. Annabelle was one of those ladies with a twinkle in her eye and occasional wink. She could also give you "the look" that meant quit messing around and get down to business! So, now with all our memories stored away, its time to say goodbye. To all of her family, my deepest sympathy. And to Karen & Chuck, may you find peace and comfort from your "old" friends - us Dedham girls!

Annabelle always had a coffee can full of homemade chocolate chip cookies on her cupboard waiting for me. Don't even get me started on her delicious rolls and buns! She was a favorite 3rd grade teacher of mine; Annabelle made learning FUN! Most of all, I remember Annabelle giving me the love for Scrabble. She taught me several Scrabble strategies, and some "q" words, and let me look up words in the big blue dictionary. I don't think she knew about the time I put the Car Wash Open sign in her bathtub, but I think she would have forgiven me. God will welcome this beautiful lady into heaven to teach everyone to read a little better. My sympathy to all the wonderful Von Bon's; your mom certainly left a legacy of love. I will never forget her. XXOO
