Born on September 6, 1917, near Lidderdale, Iowa, Arlene was the daughter of John and Sophie (Harms) Ford. She attended country school and following her schooling lived with her parents.

On October 6, 1942, Arlene was united in marriage to Alfred Hannasch at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Carroll. She spent her entire lifetime in the Carroll area and was employed at St. Anthony Hospital as a nurse's aid, retiring in 1987.

Arlene volunteered with the R.S.V.P. group and was also a member of St. Lawrence Parish and Parish Ladies Guild.

Survivors include her daughter, Beverly Newman and her husband Mike of Iowa City; her grandsons: David Newman of Iowa City and Danny (Jennifer) Newman of Altoona; her great-grandchildren: Samantha and Cael Newman of Altoona; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Arlene was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Alfred Hannasch in 1972; her sisters: Gladys Mount and Ruth Feld; and her brothers: Wilbur Ford, Delbert Ford, George Ford, and Ira Ford.

“ Hannasch family: We delivered meals to Arlene in her cozy home on North West St. It was always a good feeling to go there with her lovely things around her, and she was dressed nicely, as in her picture. She always had a smile and a friendly word. We saw her at Carroll Health Center, too, and she was pleasant to talk with. She made a difference in this world with her quiet, kind manner. Aunt Arlene was my sponsor when I was baptized. She was always thoughtful and remembered the important days in my life when I was a child. Her kindness will be remembered for a lifetime.
