“ Dear Rose,

From what you have shared with me through the years, I know your mom was one amazing, loving and fantastic lady. Many battles she has faced and won with humbleness and pride. Sunday, she lost the war to life here on earth but won her reward in heaven. She is smiling down on you and has no more pain or tears. I pray that you find peace in your deep seeded childhood memories and your memories as an adult with your mom. My thoughts are with you even though I cannot be there to support you. Please know that all of us are thinking of you and your family and know that somebody is praying you through. Love, hugs and prayers. Karen

“So sorry for your loss. I never got to spend a lot of time with Bernice, since Wisconsin isn't that close, but whenever we visited, my Mom always wanted to stay with Bernice, and we were always welcome with open arms. Sometimes it was crowded but she always found room for us. I'm sure she is happy in Heaven with all the family and friends that are already there.
