“ Sorry for your loss. Betty always had a smile on her face. She was a strong and caring lady to anyone that she met. I learned something new when I read the obituary, her given name was Elizabeth She will always be remembered as my strong Aunt Betty. I do remember the cool old phone downstairs on the farm, drinking Kool-aid, and her taking the time to listen to me.

“ I will never forget coming to a family wedding with Dean, spending the whole wedding weekend with Betty and Virgil and how Betty laughed so much that I made Cliff dance with me at the reception. What a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and friend. The only solace is that she and Virgil are together again.
