Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Sharp Funeral Home in Carroll and online condolences may be left for Bob's family at www.sharpfuneral.com.

Born on August 2, 1929 in Arcadia, Iowa, Robert Edward was the son of William and Rose (Schroeder) Badding. Bob spent his younger years in the Arcadia area and attended St. John School. Following his schooling he assisted with building the Arcadia Legion Hall and also worked for Diers Construction. Bob served in the United States Marines during the Korean Conflict where he was placed in an engineering battalion.

On October 13, 1953, Bob was united in marriage to Joan Dentlinger at St. John Catholic Church in Arcadia. The couple lived in Arcadia for a brief time before making their home in the Carroll community.

In 1954, Bob and friend Charlie Duffy formed Badding Duffy Construction. They worked together in residential construction until Charlie left the business to serve in the United States Army. Over the years, Bob transitioned from residential to commercial construction, to today's Badding Construction Company. Bob always attributed the company's success to the hard work and dedication of all employees, past and present. In 2014, Badding Construction celebrated 60 years in business.

Bob generously served on numerous boards, including: New Hope Village, Quakerdale, Carroll Chamber of Commerce, Carroll Area Development Corp, Carroll Country Club, Holy Spirit Parish, and Carroll Elks Club. Bob was a member of Holy Spirit Parish and the Carroll Knights of Columbus.

In his spare time he enjoyed golfing, fishing, and socializing with his many friends. His greatest joy was his family – supporting his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren with their various activities, hosting family gatherings, and enjoying the family's annual trip to Lake Okoboji for the "Badding Boji Bash".

Left to celebrate his life is his beloved wife, Joni Badding of Carroll; his children: Dan Badding and his wife Sue of Panora, Nick Badding and his wife Diane of Carroll, Glenn Badding and his wife Tamie of Carroll, Gail Niehaus and her husband Deeke of Carroll, Cindy Menke and her husband Jarod of Carroll, and Ron Badding and his wife Tasha of Carroll; his daughter-in-law, Joyce (Marc) Nieland of Carroll; 30 grandchildren; 25 great-grandchildren; his siblings: Mary Jo (Pete) Berning of Arcadia, Rosie (Lon) Diers of Carroll, Kathy (Elmer) Bedford of Carroll, Janet Badding of Oak Park, IL, Bill (Mardy) Badding of Carroll; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Carolyn Badding of Arcadia, Surge Badding of Carroll, Clara Friedman of Carroll, Lawrence (Arlene) Dentlinger of Arcadia, Al (Izzie) Dentlinger of Westside, and Elaine Dentlinger of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives, and many friends.

Bob was preceded in death by his parents, William and Rose Badding; his son, Jack Badding; his brothers: Don Badding, Joe Badding, and Jack Badding in infancy; his parents-in-law, Joseph and Anna Dentlinger; and his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Martha (Everett) Daniel, Elmer Friedman, Elmer Dentlinger, and Ruth (Andy) Schreck.

“ So saddened by this news. Uncle Bob became one of my favorite people that fateful night at Bloomers when I crashed into his beloved El Camino. I went in, crying, and broke the news. He came out and laughed and told me he would never say a word to my dad. What a cool guy. That was my experience of Uncle Bob...super cool guy who will missed by many. God Bless you Baddings...love you!

“Joni, you and your family are in my thoughts. The Bob Badding family have been a huge part of my life since I moved to Carroll 38 yrs ago! I was very fortunate to have such a thoughtful, caring landlord. Bob always treated me with respect! May each of you find Peace and Contentment knowing you are being remembered with prayers. God Bless each of you! MK. - PHD

“Joni and all of the Badding family, I'm sorry for your loss. I was surprised to open a free paper I got today and see Bob's picture in the Obits.
Bob was always so nice. When I was just a little kid I remember him always saying Hi to me. Seems like he always thought of others.
May God bless you all in this time of adjustments.

“ OUR DEEPEST HEARTFELT PRAYERS ARE SENT TO THE ENTIRE BADDING FAMILY. SOME OF OUR BEST MEMORIES OF BOB HAVE TO BE OF CHEERING ON THE KNIGHTS WHEN BRIAN AND OUR SON JAMIE WERE ON THE TEAM. THAT SPECIAL GROUP OF BOYS ALWAYS MEANT SO MUCH TO BOB. A TIME NEVER WENT BY WHEN HE DIDN'T ASK ABOUT OUR SON AND WITH A SMILE. HE WAS A BIG CHEERLEADER FOR YOUNG PEOPLE OF MANY AGES.

“ Dear Joan,

My parents, Ray and Birdie Berndt, treasured Bob and your many years of friendship deeply. Bob was one GREAT person. Our prayer is God wrap's His arms around you and brings you peace with Bob's passing. As our former pastor so often said: HE will never let you down and HE will never let you go. That is GREAT news!!!

God's Blessing and Peace to you!

“ My deepest sympathy to all of the Baddings at this time. My years working at Brothers, bring back fond memories of Bob, all the boys and spouses! Making sure Dan didn't have to go home and eat cold cereal for supper, (ordered him a pizza every time).
Bob was a mentor to many!
You are all in my prayers!
