Born on April 18, 1952 at Carroll, Iowa, Camela was the daughter of Tom and Dorothy (Buehler) Breon. She spent her younger years in the Odebolt area and later graduated from Odebolt-Arthur High School with the Class of 1970.

On June 19, 1970, she was united in marriage with Dick Neumann at Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Ida Grove. Dick and Camie remained in the Odebolt area following their marriage and later moved to the Carroll Community where they enjoyed one another's companionship for the remainder of their nearly 47 years of marriage. She was employed for many years at Bil Mar Foods in Storm Lake and then Pella Corporation in Carroll where she recently retired from.

Camie loved camping, sitting around the campfire, and also enjoyed cooking. In recent years she spent time traveling with her husband; the love of her life, to the south during the Iowa winter months. Her greatest joy was spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren. Camela was a member of St. Lawrence Church in Carroll.

Survivors include her husband Dick Neumann of Carroll; her children: Chad Neumann and special friend Ann of Carroll, Travis Neumann and his wife Sara of Carroll, and Shannon Neumann of Carroll; her grandchildren: Ashley Neumann, Taylor Neumann, Devin Behrendsen, Caden Neumann, Cheyann Neumann, Kaia Neumann, Mitchell Neumann, Paxton Neumann, and Riley Coats; her brother, Duane (Mary) Breon of Boyer; as well as other extended relatives and many friends.

Camela was preceded in death by her parents, Tom and Dorothy Breon; and her sisters: Pamela Breon and Janice Richardson.
