Born on December 20, 1949 in Carroll, Iowa, Deb was the daughter of Harry and Shirley (Axman) Christensen. She attended St. Joseph's School in Dedham and later graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School in 1968. On December 4, 1971, Deb was united in marriage to Richard Mathany at St. Anthony's Church in Des Moines, Iowa. The couple had two children and made their home in Des Moines until 1977 when they moved to Dedham. Deb was employed for 32 years at New Opportunities with the WIC Program. She also worked part-time at Walmart for over 14 years. Both jobs allowed Deb to do what she truly loved; being around people. In 2015, Deb and Rich returned to the Des Moines area.

Deb enjoyed attending movies, vacationing, playing cards, photography, and listening to music, especially Elvis. Her greatest love and joy were spending time with her family, especially her grandchildren.

Deb is survived by her husband Rich Mathany of West Des Moines; her children: Becki (Tom) Rotherham of West Des Moines, and Jeremy (Corey) Mathany-Lund of Sioux Falls, SD; her grandchildren: Lauren Rotherham and Nathan Rotherham, both of West Des Moines; her siblings: Dixie Christensen of West Des Moines, Dr. Donald (Nancy) Christensen of Texas, JoAnn (Bob) Nair of Des Moines, and Duane (Betty) Christensen of Georgia; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Myrna Laird of Spencer, Dave (Linda) Mathany of Woodburn, Loretta (Ron) Kelly of Afton, Lenora Newton of Ankeny and Donna Hinderks of Osage; as well as aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Her parents, Harry and Shirley Christensen, and her brother Dale Christensen preceded her in death.

“ Deb and I became close friends before kindergarten, as neighbors and remained close thru high school and beyond. We had matching outfits including shoes we wore to grade school. So many stories we could tell, including coloring our hair green(me) and blue (Deb) on St Patrick's Day, going to school, being sent to Sister Camille after Mass to be sent home to wash our hair and going back to school with our hair in juice cans while it dried. So many fun times shared listening to records on the north side of Deb's house on summer evenings. We knew the word to every song. So many memories we could trigger by just one word....I know she is already getting reacquainted with others gone before her in heaven. Looking forward to someday creating mischief with her again... My thoughts and prayers to Rich, Becky, Jeremy and others. You have your own special angel in heaven now watching over you.

“ To Deb's Family,
Rich, Becky and Jeremy

I am so sorry and sad to hear about Deb's passing. 🙏🙏

Not only was she a great person, she was a kind hearted neighbor and was always up for conversation when we'd see each other.

May the Lord welcome her home. 🙏🙏🙏

I know that this is so difficult at this time, Take time to grieve and remember all the good times , hold them dear to your heart 🙏❤️
I Know from my own experience that it does get a bit better but no one can replace a parent. Your all in my thoughts and prayers.

Fly high Dedham Friend and Neighbor

May the Lord Bless your family

Until we meet again

RIP Deb
