“Delbert was what any man wishes they could be. He was a wonderful husband, father and friend. Delbert was respectful to all people and made everyone feel important. I was always glad to see him and also always came away with envy for the way that he carried himself and lived his life. Delbert and Delores have touched the lives of so many people. I wish my mom was still here so that she could express her appreciation for the kindness they bestowed on her and our family.
