The daughter of Michael and Catherine (Hoffman) Berger, Dolores was born on August 13, 1930, grew up on a farm near Roselle, and attended Holy Angels School. She earned a high school education while attending the convent in La Crosse, WI. Though she didn't end up joining a religious order, God and her faith remained a priority throughout her life. Next to faith, nothing mattered more to Dolores than family. Her children, grandchildren, and great grandchildren were her pride and joy and she loved them beyond measure. May those of us who survive her embody her selflessness and love for others.

On October 23, 1956 Dolores was united in marriage to Melvin Herbers at Holy Angels Catholic Church in Roselle. The couple made their home on the Herbers family farm near Halbur, where Dolores resided for 62 years, longer than any Herbers family member had. There they raised their 10 children.

Growing up during the Depression, Dolores knew about hard times and wasn't one to waste. She also wasn't one to shirk hard work and often recalled and repeated words from her mom, "Many hands make light work." For many years Dolores collected eggs every day from the several hundred chicken (the old clucks!) she tended, canned fruits and vegetables, and made jams and jellies from her orchard and enormous garden. The fruit room was filled with bins of potatoes and onions, row after row of canned fruits or vegetables, and the freezer full of good food to feed her large family. Life can't be all work and no play and Dolores enjoyed playing pitch, pinochle, and rummy - and though she played for fun, she liked to win! As her kids grew older and started leaving to make homes of their own, Dolores enjoyed playing bingo with her newfound leisure time. She was self-taught on the accordion and played as part of a band for several local towns' celebrations. The grandkids liked Grandma's house because there was always plenty of ice cream, toppings, and a full candy jar on the counter whenever they visited - and, of course, an abundance of love from Grandma.

Dolores was preceded in death by her parents, Michael and Catherine Berger; her husband Melvin Herbers; a daughter, Marian Niemeyer; a son, Thomas Herbers; her sister, Norma Henkenius; her brother, Arnold Berger; and parents-in-law, Frank and Elizabeth Herbers.

Dolores is survived by her children: Kathy (Dennis) Vogl of Atlantic, Leo (Deanne) Herbers of Urbandale, Jean (Barry) Ford of Omaha, NE, Carol (George) Packard of Ogallala, NE, Louis (Kris) Herbers of Halbur, Lori (Tom) Dunn of Hot Springs, SD, Annette (Michael) Fields of Waukee, and Dan (Michelle) Herbers of Gretna, NE, son-in-law John Niemeyer of Minneapolis, MN, daughter-in-law DeLayne Herbers of Carroll; 25 grandchildren, and 16 great-grandchildren; her sisters: Bernadine Heinrichs, Mary Jane Berger, and Pauline Schenkelberg; brothers-in-law Jerome Henkenius and Elmer Herbers; sisters-in-law: Darlene Niehaus, Dorothy Pudenz, and Dolores Herbers, as well as many nieces, nephews and other extended family.

“ Aunt Dolores, and all the Herbers family, have a special place in my heart. I have so many good memories out on their farm and at family gatherings. As my aunt and godmother, I admired her strength and deep faith. They say God doesn't give us more than we can handle. Well, He definitely had faith in Dolores and entrusted her with so much! She was a strong, resilient, faith-filled woman who worked harder than anyone I know. May she now rest in peace and reap her just rewards. Hugs and prayers for comfort and peace to all the family.

“ The Herbers family is special to me as I helped bale hay for them and as their cousin always thought they were the kindest people on the plane earth. And Dolores was part of creating the legacy of that family. Mel and I got along famously and I miss them both. Had planned a western tour this summer and stop in, but unfortunately that was too late.

“ Although I graduated from high school with Kathy, I never knew Dolores until I managed the books at the Westside Community Club Bingo. She was such a pleasant lady....always gracious, always smiling, and always proud when she could get her "kids" or grandkids to join her for the evening. Just a nice, nice person.
