“ I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of your dear father and husband. His departure marks the end of an era, as the last of 12 siblings to leave us. His values of hard work and community have left a lasting memory for all of us. My heart goes out to Pauline and all of my dear cousins during this difficult time. May you find comfort in your memories and the love he shared with you. Please accept my sincerest condolences. Karen (Berning) Smith

“ Sorry for your loss. He was "good people". Donnie picked up my mother's (Polly Hathcock) mail and delivered it to her...rain or snow. Always checking in with her. He was a blessing to her and us. Donnie swam laps in Carroll and when he saw any of us, he let us know how many laps he had completed. Always trying to beat the previous year! He and Pauline were the perfect small town neighbors.
