Born on July 1, 1929 at rural Templeton, Iowa, Dorothy was the daughter of Frank and Theresa (Bluml) Mayer. She spent her younger years in the Templeton area and later attended Sts. Peter and Paul School. She later furthered her education and graduated with the first Adult Education Class in 1970. On April 19, 1949 she was united in marriage to Adrian Halbur at Sts. Peter and Paul Church in Carroll. The couple made their home west of Willey where Dorothy was a devoted homemaker and mother. She enjoyed crafts, bowling, cards, sewing, and most of all gardening. Dorothy was a member of St. Mary's Parish, Parish Ladies Guild and Carroll Catholic Daughters of the Americas, and a longtime member of Carroll County Farm Bureau where she served as president.

Survivors include her children: Roger Halbur and wife Joan of Carroll, Teri West of Cedar Rapids, Neil Halbur of Chicago, IL, and Ann Halbur of Ft. Dodge; 5 grandchildren; 5 great-grandchildren; her sister, Veronica Quandt of Lidderdale; her in-laws: Verna Mayer of Carroll, Lou (John) Saam of Midland, MI, Bill Hawver of Kansas City, MO, and Pat Halbur of Naperville, IL; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended relatives.

Dorothy was preceded in death by her parents; husband Adrian in February of 1999; her sisters: Jean Hansohn, Agnes Snyder, Theresa Schaeffer, and Mary Mayer; and her brothers: Frank, Ben, Leo, Joe, and Paul Mayer.

“ *My Deepest Condolences to the family of Dorothy Halbur.
God is the creator of life
The Bible calls Jehovah God "The source of Life" (Psalm 36:9 & Acts 17:24&25)
The one who gave life to all living things is certainly capable of restoring life to someone who died. God is eager to do it. Jehovah hates Death he views it as a "ENEMY" (1corinthians 15:26). He has " A Yearning" to conquer that enemy, to undo Death by means of the resurrection. He longs to bring back those who are in his memory and to see them live on earth again.
(Job 14: 14&15)*

“ *Dear Roger & family.... You are in my thoughts and prayers. Dorothy was so fun to be around and we enjoyed many good laughs together. I am so happy we were able to grant her bucket list of flying more time. ~ Kristi

“ *Roger, Teri, Neil an Ann. So sorry to hear of your Moms passing. She surely was a great lady and a fun filled neighbor from years ago.
To put up with some of the stunts that we did
back in the day, she has to be in heaven.
Wishing You peace and comfort at this most difficult time. Will try and make the service. Jim and Liz Havermann*
