Born on January 7, 1944 at Carroll, Iowa, Duane was the son of Lawrence and Helen (Sander) Nieland. Duane grew up on the family farm near Breda at attended St. Bernard's School. He enjoyed the farm and assisted his parents with their farm operation. Duane was a longtime resident of New Hope Village in Carroll and most recently a resident of Regency Park Nursing Home in Carroll.

Duane was an avid baseball fan and loved to collect baseball cards. He had an uncanny ability to remember baseball statistics and presidential history.

Duane is survived by his siblings: Gene (Becky) Nieland of Breda, Ruth (Leon) Tigges of Carroll, Lois (Peter) Cousseau of New York City, Sister Lone Nieland, FSPA of Carroll, and Ethel (Tom) Unger of Silverton, Oregon; as well as many nieces, nephews, and his family at New Hope Village and Regency Park.

Duane was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Larry Nieland; his sister-in-law, Connie Nieland; his nieces, Julie Tigges – Bornong, Jill White, and his nephew, Steve Nieland.

Tribute Wall

“ I had the pleasure of working with Duane at New Hope and have very fond memories of him. He was always a bright spot in my days there, he shared so many facts with me and we laughed together often. Duane never called me by my real name after he learned I had the same birthdate as a president, to him I was always Gerald Ford. My deepest condolences to the family, he was a great guy and will be missed.
