Duane, the son of John and Susan (Schulte) Steinkamp was born on March

17, 1932 at Breda, Iowa. He grew up northwest of Breda, and graduated in 1949 from St. Bernard's High School. After his formal education Duane worked at the Wall Lake Lumber Yard, an Asphalt Paving Crew in South Dakota, and various farmers before beginning to farm for himself.

On September 23, 1952 Duane was united in marriage to Delores Huelsing at St. Paul's Catholic Church in Scranton, Iowa. The couple made their home outside of Breda where Duane continued farming until he retired in 1999. At which time they moved into the town of Breda. In addition to farming, Duane served as the town Cop in Halbur and Breda, and supplied security for many celebrations around the county.

Duane enjoyed living a simple life. He was a lifelong Chicago Cubs Fan, and also enjoyed fishing and leisurely golfing at the Breda Golf Club. You could find Duane at Red's Place in Breda most days at 3 p.m. playing cards with his many friends while bidding on nothing. Duane was an active member of St. Bernard's Parish in Breda.

Dodge, and Nick (Linda) Steinkamp of Emmetsburg; ten grandchildren; 21 great-grandchildren, and 1 great-great grandson due in April.
