Born on July 3, 1931, Helen Ann was the daughter of Ben and Elizabeth (Fehring) Schwabe. She attended country school and later graduated in 1948 from St. Bernard's High School in Breda. Following her schooling Helen helped area families after the birth of their newborn babies.

On August 3, 1954 Helen was united in marriage to Bernard "Sonny" Irlbeck at St. Bernard's Church in Breda with her uncle and godfather, Fr. Matthew B. Fehring officiating. The couple made their home in Templeton, Westside, Vail and Deloit before returning to Templeton in 1969 to farm. Helen enjoyed helping with the farm operation and sold Stanley Home Products for 42 years. In 1995, Helen and Sonny moved from the acreage into Templeton.

Helen enjoyed cards, trips to the casino, and watching her grandchildren and great-grandchildren grow up in the world. She was a lifelong member of Sacred Heart Parish, Parish Ladies Guild, Dedham American Legion Auxiliary and Catholic Daughters of the Americas.

Helen is survived by her children: Nancy Irlbeck Musick (Steve) of Moscow, Idaho, Mary (John) Grundmeier of Carroll, Robert (Pam) Irlbeck of Templeton, Lois (John) Behrens of Roselle, Kathy (Donn) Mosman of Raymore, Missouri, Duane (Angela) Irlbeck of Templeton, and Glen (Anne) Irlbeck of Templeton; 22 grandchildren; 39 great-grandchildren; her brother, Roger Schwabe; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law, LeRoy (Elaine) Irlbeck, Tom (Dawn) Irlbeck, Fred (Karen) Irlbeck, Eugene (Mary Jo) Irlbeck, Marian Irlbeck and Patricia Irlbeck; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, Ben and Elizabeth Schwabe; her parents-in-law, Alphonse and Margaret Irlbeck; her husband, Bernard “Sonny” Irlbeck; her daughter, Betty Irlbeck; her grandson, Johnny Behrens; her sister, Marie Schumacher; her brother, Paul Schwabe and a brother in infancy; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-laws: Kay Schwabe, Mary Ann (Frank “Boots”) Irlmeier, James Irlbeck, John (Barb) Irlbeck, Raymond Irlbeck, and Jerome Irlbeck.

Our sympathy to Helens family . Helen and Sonny were always there for our parents when they lived next to Alvin and Hilda Steffes. Words cannot express how much we loved them for being who they were...loving and caring neighbors.They had so much love for others with their generous hearts for Dad & Mom. Prayers for all of you during this time of sorrow. Gary and Donna Steffes Ocken
