Father James Edward Fangman was born on April 7, 1931 at Ames, Iowa; the son of Sylvester and Bernadette (Maxwell) Fangman. He grew up in Boone, Iowa, and attended Sacred Heart School, before graduating from Boone High School. He attended St. Paul Seminary in St. Paul, Minnesota, and Mount St. Bernard Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa. Fr. Jim was ordained a Priest on June 1, 1963 at the Cathedral of the Epiphany in Sioux City, Iowa.

Father Jim said his first Mass at his home parish of Sacred Heart in Boone, and served in parishes in Estherville, Willey, Ogden, Kingsley, Marcus and elsewhere. Prior to realizing his priestly vocation, Jim served two years aboard the Navy's USS Bradford during the Korean Conflict where he sustained hearing loss.

Father Fangman was preceded in death by parents Sylvester and Bernadette Fangman; brothers Charles and Thomas Fangman; and sister Miriam (Fangman) Moderhock. He is survived by his brother, Fr. Robert, also a priest, of Carroll and his sister, Elizabeth wife of Roger Maulik of Saint Paul, Minnesota and many nieces and nephews.
