“ My prayers and thoughts are with you all at this time. I'm probably not going to make it to the funeral because of the weather but you will be in my thoughts and prayers at that time and throughout the Christmas season. Take comfort that he is at peace and that he suffers no longer. God bless you all.

“ To Jim's Family: As we grieve the loss of a darn good person, we must remember what we have gained from him.
I will always remember Jim's "can do" attitude that he never lost, even as he knew the end was close. I will always remember the positive way he approached the good and bad elements of life.
I feel a great deal of sorrow for the loss of Jim and wish his family all the best as they deal with this.
I take comfort, though in the fact that he has a great family who will carry on in the great spirit that was his.
