Born on June 27, 1937 at Willey, Iowa, Janice was the daughter of John and Clara (Koster) Knobbe. She attended St. Mary's School in Willey and later graduated with the first class from Kuemper High School in 1955.

On October 26, 1957, she was united in marriage to Leon Baumhover at St. Lawrence Church in Carroll. The couple made their home south of Carroll where Leon was engaged in farming and Janice was a devoted housewife and homemaker. Janice was a dedicated parishioner at Holy Angels Church. She sang with the choir, assisted with the church bulletin, was a housekeeper for several of the priests and also served as a communion minister.

Janice was known as a woman with a dry wit, who was never at a loss for words. An avid Scrabble player, crossword puzzle solver and dictionary word challenger she was a worthy advisory. Janice was a lifelong searcher of knowledge, often reading a book a week, researching genealogy, and staying abreast of current events. She enjoyed life; spending time with "her people" (family), playing games and broadening her view of the world through travel with her husband and children. As a mother, Janice encouraged her children to be independent, but kept them close. Janice was always ready for company and was generous in conversation and libations. She will be missed.

Left to celebrate her life is her husband of 59 years, Leon Baumhover of Carroll; her children: Jill Reiss of Omaha, Jay (Jan) Baumhover of Mt. Carmel, Sue (Daniel) Guido of Phoenix, Karla (Mayo) Baumhover Pongsagun of Thailand, Julie (Scott) Mankin of West Linn, OR, and Jessica (Andy) Riesselman of Sioux Falls, SD; 8 grandchildren; 6 step-grandchildren; her sister, Bonnie Young of Casa Grande, AZ; her sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Dorothy Knobbe of Carroll, Helen Knobbe of California, Jean Knobbe of Guthrie Center, Loras Baumhover of Auburn, NE, Norb (Linda) Baumhover of Carroll, Harry (LaVonne) Baumhover of Carroll, Leonard (Janet) Baumhover of Audubon, Gene (Janet) Baumhover of Leawood, Kansas, Vern (Jean)

Baumhover of Overland Park, KS, Mark (Vivian) Baumhover of Hills, Dean Baumhover of Scranton, Marita Mohr of Des Moines, Donna (Mike) Stitz of Carroll, Jane (Jim) Morrison of Dunlap, IL, Anne Baumhover of Fremont, NE and Marcia Baumhover of Des Moines; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Janice was preceded in death by her parents, John and Clara Knobbe; her daughter, Diane; her son, Daniel; and her siblings: Merlin Knobbe, Florence Huegerich, Jackie Sibenaller, Jerry Knobbe, Edwin Knobbe, Bob Knobbe, Roy Knobbe, and Lee Knobbe.

“ We are so sad to hear of Jan's passing. Jan babysat for our four children more than 20 years ago but I will never forget her patience, and her great sense of humor and the fact that she would get down on the floor with the kids and just PLAY with them! My memories of Jan will continue to make me smile. She was a beautiful woman, inside and out.

Our deepest sympathy to her family. May happy memories carry you through the difficult times.

“ My Deepest Sympathy. It's so difficult losing someone you love in death. Drawing close to God at this time really helps. God says: "Throw your anxiety on him because he cares for you." God extends and invitation to you to turn to him when you are hurting and in need of comfort. I hope knowing that God really cares for you gives you comfort and helps you through this difficult time.

Thoughts and prayers to the Baumhover family. Janice was such a influential and loving grandmother to my 2 boys, Collin & Tyler. Julie (Baumhover) Prouty

Julie Prouty - September 12, 2016 at 03:26 PM

Jill, I was so sorry to hear that your mom had passed away. Given the character, integrity and giftedness I see in her daughter, I know she must have been a remarkable woman. I am praying that the everlasting arms of our Heavenly Father surround you and your family during this painful time.

The family of Janice Baumhover would like to thank family members, friends and neighbors for your acts of kindness and sympathy: food, flowers, spiritual offerings, cards, visits and kind words spoken to our family during the loss of our loved one. Thank you everyone for the love and support shown to us. Knowing that we were not alone helped us endure our grief and sadness. Thank you for being there for us. Janice will be missed.

Love, the Baumhover family
