Born on February 4, 1932, in Carroll, Jeanette Margaret was the daughter of Joseph and Nellie (Timmerman) Baumhover. She graduated from Our Lady of Mount Carmel High School in 1950. On May 20, 1952, Jeanette married her high school sweetheart, Kenneth Nees at Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church. Jeanette and Kenny made the Mt. Carmel area their home where they farmed and raised ten children with unconditional love.

Jeanette was an avid gardener and known for her gentle but strong spirit, her incredible memory, and especially going out of her way to take a keen interest in the lives of each and every member of her family. She touched the lives of many with her compassion and generosity, whether it was her contributions to charitable causes or her gifts to family, friends and neighbors of home baked bread, lovingly stitched quilts, or the greatest gift of all, her time. Jeanette lived by an old saying handed down by her mother: "Use it up, wear it out, make it do or do without."

Jeanette had a strong faith in God. She was generous with her time, talents and treasures as a member of the Our Lady of Mount Carmel's Ladies Guild, Our Lady of Mount Carmel Parish, and as a long time co-chair of the Our Lady of Mount Carmel Funeral Luncheon Committee. In addition, she was a devoted volunteer at the nursing homes and volunteered 37 years at New Hope Bargain Store.

Survivors include her husband of 61 years, Kenneth Nees of Mt. Carmel; ten children: Dan (Kathy) Nees of Ankeny, Tom (Rosanne) Nees of Carroll, Steve (Iris) Nees of Halbur, Joan (Ed) Wehr of Westphalia, Chris (Randy) Blake of Wiota, Theresa Potthoff (Jerry Green) of Pauls Valley, OK, Susan Nees (Scott Ainsworth) of Watkinsville, GA, Jill (John) Kolb of Ames, Joe (Monica) Nees of Breda, and Mike (Kim) Nees of Carroll; 30 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren; her siblings: Winifred (Ray) Jorgenson of Carroll, Virgil (Mary) Baumhover of Carroll, Jim (Marie) Baumhover of Mt. Carmel, Betty (Jerry) Klocke of Carroll, Lenore (Richard) Fiedler of Scranton, Anita (Francis) Fiedler

“ My very sweet Aunt Jeanette. Amazingly and unconditionally she made lunch on the farm for that big Nees gang every day for years and years. My mom and her had a very special bond in the later years that gave each one special strength. I was blessed and grateful to have seen her last month on a trip to Iowa. She was in good spirits and gave me and my sister Micky a quilt as a love offering. You are now in peace, Aunt Jeanette. Love, Jeff Nees.

“ We have to be considered the lucky ones. We had the opportunity to know Jeanette as a neighbor, aunt, and friend. She was an inspiration, for sure. Did you ever see her without an upbeat attitude or smile on her face? We are sad, but more so- we are grateful that someone like that was part of our lives. If everyone could raise the kind of family that you and Kenny have; the world would be a more beautiful place. Thank you, Jeanette.

“ WHAT A LOVE STORY

A tribute to both Jeanette and Kenny; high school sweethearts who truly loved and admired one another for over one-half century. Faithful through thick and thin. He was in her heart and she in his. This never being more obvious than in the recent years of dealing with the health issue. Jeanette forever giving, be it the many, many quilts she made and gave to others; or the many loaves of bread she baked every day; to give away, doing all this while in recovery. Kenny made sure she had the flour and would thread her sewing machine so she could continue to sew those quilts. She had trouble seeing that small needle; a complication of the cancer. He was at her side, through the battle of cancer, supporting, protecting and encouraging her. In the autumn, the last days came, then the beauty of love peace and quiet surrounded her and the family. Memories as these are forever; but it's the effects that last forever. WHAT A LOVE STORY!

“ Even though I am a sister-in-law and have lived many miles from Jeanette all of my life in the family, I always felt close to her, in spirit and place. She had the uncanny ability to share her love and concern for all, even over many miles. I have had the great honor to have many long phone conversations with her, especially the last several years when we were less busy; it always did my heart good. I am so sorry for Kenny and their entire family for this great loss and selfishly, feel very sorry for myself as well. While we will miss her desperately, she will still love and guide us from her new home. God bless Jeanette.

*Lovingly,

“ I took "Jeanette" as my confirmation name because I couldn't think of another person I looked up to more. She really was so special to me. She had the loveliest sense of humor, an endless capacity for nurturing those around her, and was mother and wife to our favorite people growing up on the farm. She leaves behind such a legacy in her kids & grandkids. I will never forget her and I wish her everlasting peace. My condolences to Kenny and our Nees cousins.
