“ Father Jeff was made into an action figure (he liked that term better than paper doll) to help our family faith students learn about the liturgical year. From participating in the water fight during Totus Tuus to bringing in props for his homilies , Father Jeff did such a nice job trying to connect with the youth of our parish.

“ I enjoyed Father Jeff when he was in Greene County. I will always remember when he made a special effort to come up to the choir loft after mass in Churdan to offer his condolences when my mother died. I was a little surprised he did this since I am not Catholic but I really appreciated it. The Bishop's 2025 Plan put Father Jeff between a rock and a hard place many times in Greene County which made some parishioners upset with him. Trying to please his boss and all the Catholics of Greene County put him in a no win situation too many times. May you now rest in peace Father Jeff.
