Joseph, the son of Henry and Sophia (Hansman) Schmitz, was born on July 23, 1927 in Carroll, Iowa. He grew up on the family's century farm, attended country school, and Sts. Peter and Paul School.

On January 24, 1951, Joseph was united in marriage to Esther Niehus, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Remsen, Iowa. Joseph was a life-long farmer over the years he has raised both grain and livestock. Conservation was important to him, and he was one of the first farmers in the area to farm with terraces to prevent erosion. Joseph was very active in the community where he was involved in the Knights of Columbus, Elks Club, 4H Leader for 24 years, Carroll County Democratic Party Chairman, Kuemper Parents Club, Iowa State Extension Council Chairman, Beef Producers and Pork Producers. Family, Farming, Politics, and Conservation were important to Joseph. Joseph was a member of St. Mary's Parish in Willey.

Left to celebrate his life is his wife of over 68 years Esther Schmitz of Willey; eight children: Diane (Jim) Policky of Omaha, Dan (Karen) Schmitz of Carroll, Debra (Edward) Vogl of Arcadia, Doan Schmitz of Ames, Dorene (Joe) Francis of Williamsburg, Donna (Joe) Ascherl of Triangle, VA, Denise (Greg) Lux of Carroll, and Darlene (Bill) Huberty of Mitchellville; 25 grandchildren; 9 great-grandchildren; his sister Dorothy Judge of Denver, CO; and sisters-in-law Carole Voss of Cherokee, and Peg Niehus of Remsen; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended family members.

Joseph was preceded in death by his parents; his siblings: Leonard, Hilbert, Mildred, Charles, Raymond, Morris, Lester, Le Roy, Ramona, and Mary, and Stanley both in infancy.

“ Our condolences to Aunt Esther and all of Uncle Joe's family. I'll always fondly remember our far too infrequent but always lively political conversations going back 40 years. I'm sure I never changed his mind on anything but he always left me with something to think about.

With sympathy, Mark Judge and Mary Lee Inman, Satellite Beach, FL
