Lawrence Henry Steffes was born on January 14, 1928 near Roselle, Iowa. He was the son of Joseph and Josephine (Haberl) Steffes. Lawrence spent his younger years in the Roselle area and attended Holy Angels School.

On January 22, 1952, Lawrence was united in marriage to Darlene Irlbeck at St. John's Catholic Church in Arcadia. The couple lived near Roselle, Mt. Carmel and later moved to Carroll in 1960.

Lawrence was a farmer, gravel hauler, worked for Highway Surfacers, and also worked at Farmland Foods in Denison for over 30 years & he never missed a day. He enjoyed fishing, riding motorcycles, horses, baseball, playing cards, country music, and had a passion for doing yardwork. He thoroughly enjoyed taking his grandchildren for drives around Swan Lake. His greatest joy was spending time with his wife "Leaner" and his entire family. Lawrence was a member of St. Lawrence Church in Carroll.

Steffy is survived by his children: Pamela Dehne and her husband Ernst Jr. of Ames, Vicki Reiling and her husband Larry of Carroll, Shelley Ahrens and her husband Dominic of Carroll, and Denny Steffes and his wife Lisa of Manning; 11 grandchildren; 15 great-grandchildren; his sisters: Florence Kokenge of Carroll, Bernice Irlmeier of Templeton, and Coletta (Leo) Wernimont of Fonda; his sisters-in-law: Dixie Steffes of New Hampton, Mary Irlbeck of Carroll, and Cindy Irlbeck of Carroll; his brothers-in-law: Virgil (Roe) Irlbeck of Maple River, and Kenneth Foley of Carroll; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Steffy was preceded in death by his parents, Joseph and Josephine Steffes; his wife of 52 years, Darlene; his parents-in-law, Leo and Marie (Soyer) Irlbeck; his brother, Norbert Steffes; his sisters: Hilda Schroeder, Lucille (Bay) Galloway, Irene (Leo) Ertz, Elizabeth (Florian) Wittrock; his brothers-in-law: Lawrence Kokenge, Herb Irlmeier, Al Irlbeck, Vince Irlbeck, Denny Irlbeck, and Leon Irlbeck; and his sisters-in-law: Rosemary (Francis) Roth, Virgine Irlbeck, and Marilyn "Tots" Foley.

“ I used to live down the street from Steffy. I remember riding my bike past his house and he'd always have a wave and a smile for me. I stopped by occasionally as he worked outside, tinkered with his motorcycle, etc. He was a very kind man.
