“ Please keep her son Brandon and her grandbabies in your thoughts and prayers. Leisa loved and adored her Grandbabies ,they were her pride and joy! Leisa was a huge music lover and she loved it LOUD! She loved songs that carried special meanings to her and loved to share that with others. In her younger years she would go out dancing any chance she got! She loved writing journals and also some poetry at times. She had an amazing sense of humor and definitely had "the gift of gab". She loved anything vintage and collected many unique treasures over the years. She could tell you a story or a sentiment attached to most every item in her home, she had a massive magnet collection that adorned her fridge that all the kids loved to play with. She saved everything including but not limited to- all the drawings or pictures that the kids colored for her over the years. Leisa loved people and held those she adored very close. She never forgot a face, or a name and man she had a memory for miles! I always have said Leisa was a "Jane of all trades and master of many!" She had many careers over the years including Cosmetology ,Bank Manager, CNA and yes even drove the big rigs for awhile as a truck driver (she was very proud of that) ,her truck handle was "Runaway" which was fitting if you knew Leisa ! I always looked at her as always chasing dreams rather than running away. She loved deeply ,lived loudly and truly imprinted on many people over the years. She was very nostalgic and loved attending many events for her nieces and nephews. Leisa was notoriously late for everything and was common knowledge to tell her to be there an hour before she actually needed to be and she still might have been late! The memories I have are many and regardless of anything I loved my sister in the best way I knew how. I know she is at peace.
