“ Ever thoughtful and sincere, Aunt Linda was one of the sweetest women in my life. She would send me a lovely card every single holiday. Visiting her was always exciting because she had a really tasty breakfast bake and would show me toys my Mom used to play with. I've been taking walks, and whenever a bright red cardinal flies by, I'm always reminded of her.

Aunt Linda's smile and laughter sure lit up the room! As a youngin' I recall how she and Norb came to sibling grad parties and brought a cooler with Miller Lite! And always showing an interest in our youth conversation. May you rest in peace

May Linda always be remembered for her smile - she knew how to have fun! My personal memories will be of her unique long cylindrical cooler to store her favorite beverage, how she enjoyed her plants and esp. her devotion to helping in her parish as an usher alongside uncle Norb early on Sunday mornings. May she rest in peace.
