Linda was born in Gray, Iowa to Arlie and June (Swart) Olsen on November 28, 1943. She graduated from Carroll High School. She married Elmer Venteicher on July 6, 1964 in Carroll. Linda was proud to be a housewife and caregiver for her children. She was actively involved in her children's lives and volunteered to help with many of their activities, such as Boy/Girl Scout leader, catechism instructor, and classroom helper. As her children got older, Linda worked for many years at JCPenney, New Hope Gift Shop, and Christopher Banks. She enjoyed her volunteer activities including at: blood drives, Carroll County Hospice, St. Anthony's Gift Shop, and other opportunities within the St. Lawrence parish. Linda also loved being a grandmother, spending time with and spoiling the grandchildren whenever she had the chance.

Linda is preceded in death by her parents, Arlie and June Olsen, siblings: William Olsen, Thomas Olsen, Judy Fredricksen and Margo Murray as well as an infant daughter, Christine.

Linda is survived by her husband, Elmer, children Christopher (Sheila), Kimberly, and Brian (Colette). Grandchildren, Jessica Gosch, Taylor (Taylor Marie) Venteicher, Jacey (Glendon) Mesch, Elizabeth, Emily and Benjamin Venteicher, great-grandchildren, Sloane and Brooks Venteicher and Harley Mesch, siblings and siblings-in-law, Lois Krueger, Alice (Tom) Maron, Kenneth (Jonnie) Olsen and Frank Olsen.

Linda's family wishes to extend our sincere thanks to the staff at Gentiva Hospice and Journey Senior Services.
