Lou Ann was born on February 4, 1933, in Dedham, Iowa, the daughter of Lawrence and Florence (Goecke) Wolterman. In her early years she and her family moved to Templeton Iowa, where she spent the remainder of her childhood. She graduated from Sacred Heart Catholic High School in Templeton as Valedictorian in 1950. Lou Ann married Clair Otto of Mount Carmel in 1954. They spent a couple years in Germany while Clair was in the military. After moving back from overseas they settled in Carroll, where she lived throughout the rest of her life.

Lou Ann enjoyed playing bridge, golfing, working on crossword puzzles and spending time with friends and family. She loved the color pink, had an amazing memory and a wicked funny sense of humor. She was proud of the fact that she was still mowing the lawn into her eighties and her favorite part of the meal was dessert. Her favorite holiday was Christmas, and she had an impressive Santa Claus collection. Lou Ann was a devout member of St. Lawrence Catholic Church.

Lou Ann is survived by her husband of 67 years, Clair; her 5 children Joe (Val) Otto, Laura (Mark) Boshoven, Sheryl (Tim) Carlisle, Barb (Jeff) Fitzsimmons, and Steve Otto and 20 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren. Lou Ann is also survived by her brother Harlan (Jan) Wolterman and her sisters Maxine Gingery, Wanita Rolfes and Linda Klocke and many nieces and nephews.

Lou Ann was preceded in death by her parents Florence (Goecke) and Lawrence Wolterman, her sisters Patricia Eskens and Beth Klocke, and two grandsons Michael Otto and Bradley Carlisle.

I am so sorry to hear about Louann. She was a dear friend to my parents Bernie and Cooper Wells. I most remember her smile. She was always such a nice lady to babysit for and was always so welcoming when I would come back to Carroll for a visit. She will be missed. Laura Wells Monen
