Born on November 8, 1930 at Carroll, Iowa, Lynn was the son of Francis Xavier "X.F." and Mathilda (Kennebeck) Hoffman. He attended Holy Angels School in Roselle. Lynn served in the United States Army from 1952 until 1954 where he was stationed in Germany. Following his honorable discharge he returned to the Carroll area and was united in marriage to Elaine Schwabe on April 19, 1955 at St. Francis Church in Maple River. Following their marriage Lynn and Elaine made their home in Roselle. Lynn was employed his entire working career for Bliss Tire Service in Carroll; known today as Bauer Built Tire Service.

He enjoyed camping with his wife Elaine, woodworking, reading, studying history, and taking drives across the countryside. Lynn was a member of the Carroll American Legion and also a member of Holy Angels Church in Roselle, where for many years he served as the sexton to the cemetery.

Lynn is survived by his children: Gary (Marla) Hoffman of Schaller, Jean (Joel) Wittrock of Halbur, Gail (John) Potthoff of Halbur, Keith (Pam) Hoffman of Clive, and Amy (Russ) Sturm of Avoca; 11 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; one sister, Lou (Art) Pottebaum of Carroll; his sisters-in-law and brothers-in-law: Marian Bellcock of Sac City, Marita (Bernard) Meiners of Coon Rapids, Dorothy (Maurice) Eickman of Templeton, Delores Nagl of Carroll, Ella Mae (Dale) Bueltel of Manilla, Betty Monson of Missouri, and Janice (Bill) Hastings of Jacksonville, Oregon; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Lynn was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Elaine in April of 2009; his granddaughter, Jennifer Wittrock; his brother, Eugene Hoffman; and his sisters: Melvina Wuebker and Emaline Halbur.
