Marilyn was born on September 9, 1938 in Carroll, Iowa, the daughter of Norbert and Cecelia (Wernimont) Wiederin. She attended St. Angela Academy and graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School in 1956. On March 30, 1959, she was united in marriage to Paul Hoffmann at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in Carroll. The couple made their home on a farm southwest of Carroll.

Over the years, Marilyn volunteered in various capacities with St. Anthony Hospital Auxiliary, Holy Spirit Guild, and with the Kuemper Script Program.

Marilyn was rarely idle. When the kids were at home she had huge vegetable gardens. Later, she had flowers of every color and was a fabulous cook and baker; with her grandchildren addicted to her mint chocolate cookies.

She was an accomplished seamstress, sewing clothes for herself and the kids, craft items, curtains, drapes and bridesmaid's dresses for Jean's wedding.

In later years, her love of sewing sparked an interest in creating quilts. She donated over 200 quilts to New Opportunities, Holy Spirit's sister parish in Rutledge, Tennessee and New Hope Village's Quilt Auction. Nearly 100 quilts are cherished by her family.

Some of her favorite things to do were playing cards, games, and bird watching. She loved spending time with her family, especially on her annual summer gatherings. Wieder weekends with her sisters meant so much to her. Marilyn was a member of St. John Paul II Parish in Carroll.

Marilyn is survived by her children: Jean (Randy) Stoberl of Manning, Robert (Gwen) Hoffmann of Iowa City, Ron (Carmen) Hoffmann of Calhoun, Missouri, Dan Hoffmann of Roscoe, Illinois, Steve Hoffmann (Laura Ciesla) of Caledonia, Illinois and David Hoffmann of Carroll; 13 grandchildren; 12 great-grandchildren; her sisters: Pat (Jerome) Heinrichs of Omaha, Nebraska, Annette Baumhover of Carroll, Donna (Kevin) O'Donnell of Las Cruces, New Mexico, and Kathy Wiederin (Steve Jordening) of Ames.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Paul in 2000; her daughter-in-law, Lisa Hoffman; and brothers-in-law, Paul Baumhover and Vern Pundsack.

“Marilyn was a beautiful lady and great neighbor down the road. Paul and Marilyn adopted our dog years ago and Sparky went to the best home when we moved to Harlan and she stayed there even when we moved back. Marilyn always had a smile. She will be missed. What a beautiful family Marilyn and Paul raised. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

SO

Marilyn was such a wonderful person. She would stop in my office and visit whenever at Kuemper and tell where the summer camping trip was going to be. I remember babysitting for the kids years ago. Her and Paulie will now be playing cards with some other special people in heaven again. 🙏🙏
