Peter Michael was born on January 13, 1929 in Sioux City, Iowa, the son of Anton and Mary Ann (Perevich) Vakulskas. He graduated from Trinity High School in 1948 and then served in the United States Army until 1952 as a Morse Code Communications Specialist.

On May 22, 1955 he was united in marriage to the love of his life, Mercedes Pirogowicz, at St. Francis Catholic Church in Sioux City. The couple spent their lifetime in Sioux City where Peter was employed as a machinist at Concrete Pipe Machinery Company. Peter was devoted to the Lord Jesus and could always be found praying the rosary honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Peter is survived by his wife Mercedes; two sons: Steve (Kelly) Vakulskas of Chaska, MN and Ed (Anne) Vakulskas of Maplewood, MN; two daughters: Monica (Dean) Klocke of Halbur and Mary Sue Vakulskas of Coon Rapids, MN; eight grandchildren: Sara Vakulskas, Peter Michael Vakulskas, Emily Vakulskas, Anna Vakulskas, Angie Klocke, Tammie Klocke, Nick Klocke and fiancé Michelle Nieland, and Abby Vakulskas; his favorite niece, Theresa Bouyok; and special friends, Otis and Vicki Boyok.

His parents, three brothers, and two sisters preceded him in death.

“ The Bible says there going to be a resurrection (Acts 24:15). This means a real hope of being reunited with your loved one. (John 5:28&29) Gog is eager to do this because he hates Death, He view it as his Enemy (1corinthians 15:26) And he's gonig to get rid of it forever. The Bible can be a source of comfort when a love one dies. You can read these scriptures online at www.jw.org
