In lieu of flowers, should one desire, memorials may be directed to Kuemper Catholic Schools Foundation or the St. Anthony Hospital Foundation both in Carroll, IA.

Bob, known to many as “Bull”, was born on August 17, 1945, in Dedham. The son of John and Bonita (Heithoff) Sporrer, he grew up on the family farm west of Dedham. He graduated from Kuemper Catholic High School in 1963. In 1965, he entered the US Army, serving in Korea during the Vietnam era. His love of the Hawkeyes began when he attended the University of Iowa, graduating in 1972. Along with earning his degree, he played Rugby for the Iowa Hawkeyes.

On June 7, 1980, Bob married Linda Rohe at Sacred Heart Church in Manning with Fr. Merlin Schrad presiding. They made their home in Dedham and were blessed with 5 children – their two angels in heaven Kerry and Kenzie, Kyle, Jackie, and Melissa. Bob had a successful 44-year career that he truly enjoyed as a District Sales Manager in the seed industry. Outside of his career, he was active playing slow-pitch softball for the Dedham Merchants, golfing, traveling, hunting, and cheering on the Iowa Hawkeyes. Bob was a servant minded individual volunteering in many roles to support his community, church, and school. He was a member of St. Joseph Parish in Dedham and lifetime member of the Dedham American Legion. He strongly supported the Dedham Booster Club and Kuemper Catholic Schools. Bob served on the Dedham City Council since 1991, the past 4 years as Mayor of Dedham.

He will be remembered for his wonderful sense of humor, always deeming himself the “quiet and bashful type”. Bob never let a chance go by to tease the kids or friends and family around him.

Bob was a true family man, always putting his family first and supporting his wife, children, and grandchildren – whom he adored. Bob was a very proud Dad, but one of his favorite roles in life was being “Papa” to his eight grandchildren. He always left them saying, “Papa loves you!” Bob left this life with a grateful heart, always counting the blessings the Good Lord gave him.

Bob is also survived by his siblings: Don Sporrer, Helen (Ralph) Wiederin, Jim (Kathy) Sporrer, Wayne Sporrer, Paul (Bonnie) Sporrer, Doris (Ron) Peterson, Dale (Jan) Sporrer, and Dick (Sharon) Sporrer; step mother-in-law Vi Rohe, and his in-laws, or as they jokingly were referred to as the “out-laws”: Edna Rohe, Larry (Becky) Rohe, JoAnn Rowedder, Mary Jane (Keith) Stribe, Daryl (Lisa) Rohe, and Janet (Steve) Goecke.

He is survived by many Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, Nieces and Nephews. Bob was preceded in death by his twin daughters Kerry and Kenzie Sporrer, parents John and Bonita Sporrer, parents-in-law Vernon and Martha Rohe, brother LaVern Sporrer, sister-in-law Rosie Sporrer, and brothers-in-law Duane Rohe and Allen Rohe.

“ I remember Bob coming up the hill to get me from the rectory when power was out in town due to a bad snow storm, and he had a portable generator to keep his house warm. so He invited me to supper and to stay the night if need be. This was just one of many times that he looked out for others, and shared the joy of being with his wonderful family. God bless all of you. Fr Terry Roder

“ I met Bob in my early 30s when I was a young pup starting with Asgrow in the seed business. Bob was a veteran by then and I didn't know my head from a hole in the ground about the seed business (most would say that still applies only about most things, not just seed). I soon learned from him that it wasn't necessarily how much you knew about the seed business but how you treated customers and whether they liked you or not. With his infectious laugh and grin, Bob was that kind of guy and one of the main reasons he was so successful in that business. I always looked forward to being around him because he was the kind of guy who made people feel good and helped pick your spirits up. Watching Bob taught me not to be too full of yourself & to not take life too seriously when things may not have been going so well. We used to have a fair amount of 2 to 3 day meetings and I learned more in our “bull” sessions in the motel room after the day's meeting having a couple toddies with Bob and the rest of the guys than I did during the meetings. Even after his retirement, with Terri and I being several miles away, Bob & Linda would make an effort once a year to get together and we always had a great time laughing about the good memories. As we near retirement, I was really looking forward to getting together more often. As his obituary says, Bob was always good-natured and positive till the very end and this is a testament to his strong Christian faith and great wife & family. Rest in peace Bob, we will miss your friendship.
