Robert, the oldest son of Marcellus "Zeke" and Helen (Auen) Oswald was born on April 4, 1930. Robert lived in Breda, Iowa and graduated from St. Bernard's High School in 1947.

Robert served in the United States Navy from 1951-1954 as a Sonarman during the Korean Conflict. Robert married Annette Fleskes on June 25, 1952, the first marriage in the current St. Lawrence Church. Robert and Annette were married for over 69 years. They were able to enjoy their 40th Anniversary at Ft. Robinson, NE, and their 50th and 60th with family. Robert and Annette settled in Carroll where he learned the carpet and linoleum installation trade and eventually moved to Harlan, Iowa and went into business with Neil Malberg as the Floorcraft Business. Robert and Anette also managed Westridge Apartments.

Faith and family were very important to Robert. He was very humble and faithful. He was devoted to the Rosary and committed to the Catholic Church. He was active in the Knights of Columbus and many church functions. He enjoyed crosswords, play cards, and assemble jigsaw puzzles. He and Annette enjoyed traveling to Branson and traveling along the U.S.-Canada Border from East to West.

Left to celebrate Robert's life are his children: Barb (Dick) Aalbers of Monroe, IA, Steve Oswald of Omaha, NE, Craig (Lori) Oswald of Denver, CO, Lori (Mike) McCauley of Adrian, MI, and Julie Shirbroun of Lidderdale, IA; twelve grandchildren; 16 great-grandchildren; his sister: Marilyn (Steve) Millhollin of Franklin, TN; as well as many nieces, nephews, and other extended family and friends.

Robert was preceded in death by his wife Annette Oswald on October 7, 2021; two children at birth: Scott and Joni Oswald; his parents: Marcellus and Helen Oswald; and siblings: Tex Oswald and Jim Oswald.

I was privileged to know both Bob and Annette. They were good role models with Christ-like values. May they Rest In Peace.
