Born on October 16, 1937 at Carroll, Iowa, Rollin was the son of Alfred and Verna (Nepl) Tiefenthaler. He attended Our Lady of Mt. Carmel School and graduated with the Class of 1955.

From a young age he grew up at Al's Corner Oil Company and helped his dad fill pop and beer coolers, pumping gas, washing windshields, changing tires and delivering gas.

On November 7, 1959 he was united in marriage to Verna Boes at St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Breda. Following their marriage he began farming and continued to work at Al's Corner, (AKA "the station"). In the late 1970's he took over ownership of the company and in 1978 joined in partnership with his brother Mark. They built the first convenience store in Auburn and many more followed in surrounding towns within a 70 mile radius; including three truck stops.

Rollin thoroughly enjoyed going to work every day; facing the challenges of the oil industry and keeping everything going. An acquisition of a new store or site was a passion of his. He served on the Iowa Petroleum Marketers Board and the Sinclair Oil Company Board for several years.

He continued to be involved in the farming operation; getting in the combine at harvest time once his day at the station was completed; eventually passing the farm operation on to his son David. He enjoyed listening and visiting with the farmers, friends, and customers about the markets, land prices, interest rates, commodity prices, politics, and gas prices. Rollin valued his employees and treated them with respect and dignity. If he was unable to do the job he didn't expect anyone else to do it. He was their equal.

Rollin is survived by: his wife of 57 years, Verna Tiefenthaler of Carroll; his children: David (Cindy) Tiefenthaler of Auburn, and Carol (Jim) Lewis of Panama City, FL; his grandchildren: Kelly (Aaron) Smidt, Shannon (Craig) Knobbe, Katie Rotert, April (Matt) Schmitz, and Ashley (Thomas) Leise; his step-granddaughter, Sara (Josh) Lewis-Greear; 10 great-grandchildren; two brothers: Mark (Deb) Tiefenthaler of Carroll and Milo (Carleen) Tiefenthaler of Eau Claire, WI; one sister, Nancy (Tom) Nichols of Clive; as well as many nieces, nephews, other extended relatives and many friends.

Rollin was preceded in death by his parents, Alfred and Verna Tiefenthaler; his daughter, Julie; his parents-in-law, Albert and Hendrina Boes; and his great-granddaughter, Addison Knobbe.

“ Sincere condolences to Verna and Rollin's family.
I have known Rollie for over 30 years and always enjoyed his knowledge of the convenience store business, his sense of humor and his talent of "saying it like it is". Rollie was a highly respected oil jobber and retailer for many decades. He was a tough and savvy competitor who would always show up when there were industry legislative or administrative issues that needed expert input.

Rollie will be missed by many.
