“ Russ and I went to St. Patrick’s Church in Audubon. I remember a young boy whom everyone liked and respected. He never changed. In high school, he was just as friendly, rested, and intelligent as he was growing up. I had the privilege of teach all of his kids at Audubon High School. ALL of his children were reflections of their father. Smart, respectful, funny, and thoughtful. My prayers are with Kay, Aaron, Marissa, and Emily. Bless all of you.
