“ Father Brodersen was such a amazing Priest and person. He was always such a people person and great with all ages of people. He made sure people felt comfortable during marriage counseling, parish council meetings, Mass, etc. We sent each other Christmas cards for years after he transferred from our parish. He was so proud of his dog too. I have wonderful memories of Ft. Brodersen and will miss him. God bless.

“ 🎵 I have been so blessed to have worked with Priests at St. Cecelia's Algona who love music....Father Steve was no exception. As a music minister, I have received gifts at Christmas from my Pastors and still carry my music in a black gift bag (with white baby grand pianos on it) that Father Steve gave to me many years ago..... and safely pinned inside is the grateful note he wrote to me.....I can just hear him playing a Golden Baby Grand and his relatives and friends, the Angels and Saints singing along to one of his favorite hymns. Farewell, Father. May you rest in Peace! 🎵 Grateful for you! Ellen Gatton

“ I knew Father Steve when he was serving Halbur, Templeton, and Roselle as I was teaching at Holy Trinity in Templeton. I found him to be always concerned about the teachers and very encouraging for the things we were doing in our classes. I live in Manning and hadn't heard that he had cancer so I was very surprised when I heard he had died. My sympathy goes out to you, his family. He was a fine priest, a fine leader for our Catholic school, and just a pleasant person to work with. He will be remembered. Sincerely, Sally Hodne

“ My deepest sympathies to Steve's family and close friends, especially Fr. Lynn. It was the two of them that cared for me after I finished the seminary and did a pastoral year at St. Cecilia's in Algona before being ordained a priest. They were the best of friends and took me under their wings, giving me advice, keeping me out of trouble. Steve was always very humble and quiet, qualities I admired in him. He was one of the most pastoral priests in our Diocese. He was there for his people, caring for them as a true shepherd would. I will miss his advice and reassuring smiles. Steve was a fighter till the end. I admired that in him. I am saddened at his passing for sure but know he will walk me as he always has, loving me, encouraging me to grow in my faith and keeping me on the straight path. His death, like his life, reminds me that I am called to something higher, life with our heavenly Father. May he rest in peace and those who love him, find comfort and hope in the Good Shepherd who cares for all his sheep.

Steve,

What do I say, our friendship of so many many years was a beautiful gift to me. Having Lynn along was great. You were always there for me, good times and bad. From falling off the IC altar, to being with us when mom fell ill. Helping me thru the grief process. Our great lunches at the winery with Fr Lynn and the ladies. You were a fighter from day one with your cancer, This last time you fought so hard and did not give in till the end. I will be talking to you, just not on the phone but you ll hear me. Until we meet again I know I have you with me no matter what., Rest in Peace dear friend you deserve it.
